RE: Mrs. Alley v. Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc.
Docket No. 2020-186-E

Dear Mr. Mingos:

By letter dated October 12, 2020, Mrs. Alley informed Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc. ("DESC" or "Company") that the settlement offer proposed by DESC was "not satisfactory" and that she considered "negotiations to be closed." That same day, by separate letter, Mrs. Alley informed you of the same and requested that the Public Service Commission of South Carolina ("Commission") "dismiss [her] Complaint against the monopoly Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc."

The purpose of this letter is to inform the Commission that, should the Commission construe Mrs. Alley's request in her October 12 letter to you as a request to withdraw her Complaint, DESC consents to such a request.

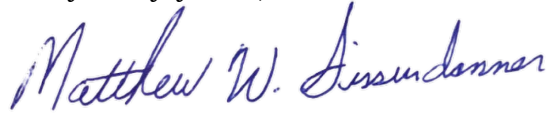

In the alternative, DESC requests that the Complaint be dismissed based on lack of standing. As established during the status teleconference held on September 24, 2020, Mrs. Alley is neither the accountholder nor an authorized person listed on the account at the service address about which the Complaint was made. Alternatively, and for the reasons set forth in DESC's previously filed Answer and Motion to Dismiss, the Complaint should be dismissed because Mrs. Alley fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, i.e., the Complaint fails to allege that DESC violated any applicable statute, law, regulation or order within the Commission's jurisdiction.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us.
